

SAFER CITY IN 6 STEPS

People shouldn't abandon their pets on the road, but take them to a shelter, so that pedestrians can walk fearlessly.

Drivers shouldn't park their cars or motorcycles on sidewalks but use parking lots.

Sidewalks are for walking. There shouldn't be any stalls, chairs or tables on it.

What can we do to have a better city for all?

Pedestrian crossings should be painted regularly so that pedestrians can cross the road safely.

Citizens shouldn't throw their garbage on the street or on the sidewalks, but in the garbage bins.

Citizens should inform the municipality if they see any broken tiles on the sidewalks, that are dangerous for them or make it difficult for them to walk.
